This exclusive mountain chalet in El Tarter combines luxury, comfort, and an unbeatable location at the foot of the ski slopes. With a surface area of about 1000 m² distributed over four floors, it is designed for a discerning audience seeking art and functionality in a natural setting. The first floor features a spacious living-dining room with a fireplace and a terrace with views of the slopes, ideal for large meals with a table for 16 people. The kitchen includes a central island and a professional kitchen, and there is a patio to enjoy the evenings. There is also an exterior spa with a jacuzzi, sauna, and hammam. The second floor houses four suites, all with views of the slopes. The suites come with well-equipped bathrooms, terraces, and fitted wardrobes. A youth suite for 6 persons is designed to ensure fun and comfort. On the third floor, we find two elegant suites with full bathrooms and private terraces with exceptional views. The ground floor includes a garage for five cars, a cinema room, a guest bathroom, and a panoramic elevator that connects all floors. The chalet, featuring restored Roman wood, offers an alpine design that complements its exclusivity and charm. It is ideal for those seeking a unique mountain experience.
